

Hemophilia Outreach Center Social Outreach Programs for 2010

The care tradition of HOC is built on the foundation that no one is alone. We foster a community of inclusion and fellowship by offering social programs that build meaningful and enduring relationships.

Community Night 5:30 – 7:30 pm

Community Night is an opportunity to share a meal, socialize and exchange information on living with a bleeding disorder and on life in general. Community Night is hosted at the Center four times a year.

Annual Christmas Party

The Christmas party has been a favorite event for our community for many years. The afternoon includes a luncheon, a visit from Santa, crafts for the children, many raffle prizes and visiting with old and new friends. The raffle fund raiser is supported by donations from corporations, businesses, our clients, family members and friends.
